Las Delicias Denver North Hosts Dining Out for CASA

Adams & Broomfield Counties, CO – Las Delicias Mexican Restaurant will open the doors of its North location at 7610 Conifer Road in Denver to host Dining Out for CASA on Wednesday, May 11, 2011. Guests who dine at Las Delicias from 11 am to 9 pm that day will help fight child abuse and neglect, with 15 percent of food sales being donated to CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Adams & Broomfield Counties.

Established in 1976, Las Delicias has been a staple in Mexican cuisine throughout the Denver area for more than 30 years. With five locations and a menu that features breakfast, lunch and dinner, Las Delicias caters to any craving. In addition to its fantastic food offerings, the restaurant has historically also excelled in philanthropy. Las Delicias' Denver North location has partnered with CASA of Adams & Broomfield Counties several times in the last two years, raising more than $2,000 to help CASA provide volunteer advocates for our children with open abuse and neglect court cases.

“The work we do it completely dependent on the support of our volunteers, donors and community partners,” commented Simone Jones, CASA Executive Director. “Las Delicias is an outstanding supporter of our program. We are so very appreciative of their ongoing partnership and encourage the community to support those businesses such as Las Delicias that contribute back to programs such as ours.”

CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Adams and Broomfield Counties is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that trains, supports and supervises community volunteers who advocate for the best interests of innocent child victims of abuse and neglect. Each year, in Adams and Broomfield Counties, there are over 1,300 children who have been physically, sexually or emotionally abused or neglected, and who are in desperate need of a caring, committed CASA Volunteer to speak up for their best interests. In Adams and Broomfield Counties, there are over 250 CASA volunteers, and we are in need of more great community members to become advocates for children. CASA conducts volunteer training classes three times a year. For more information about CASA, call (303) 654-3378 or visit www.casa17th.org.
