Tickets Available for the Third Annual YPP Night at the Races

Adams & Broomfield Counties, CO – Ladies, grab your hats and heels. Gentlemen, don your best blazers. It's time for A Night at the Races! Tickets are now available for the third annual YPP Night at the Races event, hosted by the Young Philanthropist Project (YPP) in support of CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Adams & Broomfield Counties. Night at the Races will be held on Friday, March 23, 2012 from 7:00 -10:00 pm at aLoft Hotel located at 8300 Arista Place in Broomfield near the First Bank Center.

“The YPP is excited for our third annual Night at the Races event to take place,” Bill Delisio, chair of the Young Philanthropist Project said. “Attendees are in store for a great evening.”

Early Bird Tickets are just $20 per person when purchased by February 10, 2012 and include a red carpet entrance, hors d' oeuvres, dancing and the opportunity to win fabulous prizes. Regular priced tickets are $25 per person. Attire for the evening is 'Derby Formal', with prizes being awarded for the best male and female ensemble. In addition, members of the YPP will host a 'Balloon Pop Auction' in which participants may make a $20 donation for the chance to win a gift worth up to $100.

Guests who wish to make a night of it are invited to make reservations at aLoft Hotel and receive a special Night at the Races rate of just $89 per room.

In addition, several fine ladies and gentlemen from the community are competing for the Night at the Races "King/Queen of the Derby" title by working to raise money on behalf of the YPP and CASA of Adams & Broomfield Counties. Each contestant will raise a minimum of $500 for CASA and the one who raises the most will be crowned the 2012 Winner! This year's contestants include: Andrew Casper, Colorado Oil and Gas Association; Laura Fenton, Alliance Residential; Raymond Gonzales, City of Brighton; Taylor Keyes, Total Knock Out Events; Kevin Kildow, Wells Fargo Bank; Coni Sanders, Parker, Froyd & Associates; Joni States, La Bella Vita; and Andy Willems, Flaggers Inc.

One hundred percent of the proceeds from the evening will help provide services for abused and neglected children through CASA of Adams & Broomfield Counties. The event is generously sponsored by aLoft Hotel, Valley Bank & Trust, Total Knock Out Events, Marcos Pizza, Jay's Grille and Bar, Great Scotts Eatery, The Bagel Bakery & Cupcake Shoppe, and Blue Sky Disc Jockey.

The Young Philanthropist Project is a group of philanthropists in their 20s, 30s and early 40s that work to reach out to the community in support of CASA of Adams & Broomfield

Counties. To purchase tickets or learn more about joining the YPP visit www.casa17th.org.

CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Adams and Broomfield Counties is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that works to make sure that every child who cannot live safely at home has a caring, compassionate CASA Volunteer who will help fight for their right to be safe, ensure that they are treated with dignity, and assure their safe passage out of foster care. Building a stronger community for all. Each year, in Adams and Broomfield Counties, there are over 1,300 children who have been physically, sexually or emotionally abused or neglected, and who are in desperate need of a caring, committed CASA Volunteer to speak up for their best interests. In Adams and Broomfield Counties, there are over 250 CASA volunteers, and we are in need of more great community members to become advocates for children. CASA conducts volunteer training classes three times a year. For more information about CASA, call (303) 654-3378 or visit www.casa17th.org.
