Putt Out Child Abuse Event Raises Much Needed Funds

Adams & Broomfield Counties, CO – The Young Philanthropist Project (YPP) of Adams & Broomfield Counties raised more than $9,500 to help fight child abuse and neglect with its second annual ‘Putt Out Child Abuse Tiki PAR-TEE’ on Friday, August 26, 2011. The event, which was graciously hosted by Adventure Golf and Raceway in Westminster, provided area families with a fun-filled evening of miniature golf, go-karts, bumper cars, food, music and family entertainment with proceeds being donated to CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Adams & Broomfield Counties.

The YPP, which was founded in October 2009 and consists of approximately 25 young community-minded individuals, has now raised nearly $9,500 to help provide volunteer advocates for abused and neglected children in Adams and Broomfield Counties.

“I really enjoy being a part of the YPP,” said Kyle Markley who helped with the recent fundraiser. “Not only does the YPP allow me to make a difference in my community, I also get to meet a lot of great people and have fun while doing it.”

‘Putt Out Child Abuse’ was made possible through the generous support of event sponsors, including Gold Cup Sponsors: Hyland Hills Adventure Golf & Raceway; THF Realty (Prairie Center in Brighton). Champion Sponsors: Blue Sky Disc Jockey; Dodge Sign Company; Noah’s Event Center; Renovation Church; The Bagel Bakery & Cupcake Shoppe; Tiara Printing Minute Man Press. Hole-In-One Sponsors: CRS Insurance Brokerage; Discover Health & Wellness; Gold Crown Foundation; Shred It; Robert Siebel; La Bella Vita; Live, Love, Dance Studio; and Wells Fargo.

The Young Philanthropist Project (YPP) is a group of philanthropists in their 20s, 30s and early 40s that work to reach out to the community in support of CASA of Adams and Broomfield Counties. To learn more about joining the YPP, please contact Lisandra Gonzales at 303.655.3927, or visit www.casa17th.org/ypp.

CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Adams and Broomfield Counties is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization that works to make sure that every child who cannot live safely at home has a caring, compassionate CASA Volunteer who will help fight for their right to be safe, ensure that they are treated with dignity, and assure their safe passage out of foster care. Building a stronger community for all. Each year, in Adams and Broomfield Counties, there are over 1,300 children who have been physically, sexually or emotionally abused or neglected, and who are in desperate need of a caring, committed CASA Volunteer to speak up for their best interests. In Adams and Broomfield Counties, there are over 250 CASA volunteers, and we are in need of more great community members to become advocates for children. CASA conducts volunteer training classes three times a year. For more information about CASA, call (303) 654-3378 or visit www.casa17th.org.
